INTERPHEX Puerto Rico Drives Business Strategy and Delivers Manufacturing Solutions

The 7th Annual INTERPHEX Puerto Rico Conference & Exhibition, the Island's top industrial event for the life sciences industry, will take place March 4-5, 2010 at the Puerto Rico Convention Center. Produced by Reed Exhibitions, INTERPHEX Puerto Rico serves the needs of the pharmaceutical, biopharmaceutical and medical device manufacturing professionals within Puerto Rico as well as the greater Caribbean region.

For an industry facing unprecedented change in the midst of challenging economic conditions, INTERPHEX Puerto Rico serves as a proven source of education, technology, products, solutions and networking for industry professionals. "Attending INTERPHEX Puerto Rico is more important than ever. It's an investment that allows you to keep up in today's challenging market and tough economic environment. You don't have to leave the island to find opportunities for education, training, networking and marketing." stated Barbara McAuliffe, Event Director, INTERPHEX Puerto Rico.

The 2010 event will feature a host of new additions and features including more than 250 exhibitors of which 50+ are exhibiting for the first time, an enhanced educational program, a focus on sustainable solutions and automation technologies, and a co-location with the new Latin American Supply Chain Expo, produced by the Multi Sectorial Alliance. Participating exhibiting companies include Emerson Process Management, MG America Inc., BOSCH Packaging Technology, Qosina Corp, C-Axis, IMA North America, Inc, Honeywell HPS, L.B. Bohle LLC, Penn United Technology Inc., Saint-Gobain Performance Plastics, Pall Life Sciences, Caribbean Project Management, Viega and many more

Offering biopharmaceutical and medical device manufacturing professionals unsurpassed opportunities to increase their knowledge and gain industry expertise, the 2010 INTERPHEX Puerto Rico Conference program offers technical education, with an emphasis on case studies and global best practices, in the areas of productivity, quality, biotechnology, regulatory, energy efficiency and operational excellence. All content is geared for an intermediate to advanced audience and is being presented at the event for the first time. Continuing education units are being provided by the Colegio de Ingenieros y Agrimensores de Puerto Rico (CIAPR). In addition, two days of comprehensive automation training will be presented by Rockwell Automation, for technicians and technical personnel. An exciting new feature of the event will be two free General Sessions to help drive business strategy through leadership and innovation.

INTERPHEX Puerto Rico is one of series of INTERPHEX global events known as respected source of innovation, education, and professional advancement for a globally important center of drug and medical device manufacturing, from process development through delivery to market. Networking essential to business success is as important here as the exploration of new products and services that enhance human life and health. Global INTERHEX events in 2010 will be featured in USA, China, Japan, Singapore, and Mexico.
